Invoices & Billing Documents

Summary

DAO.AD does not automatically generate invoices through the platform. If you require an invoice or other billing documents, please contact your DAO.AD manager or Support team.

Funding your account is required before launching advertising campaigns. DAO.AD supports multiple payment methods and currencies depending on your region.

Before You Begin

- Role: Advertiser
- Required information:
 - Billing profile
 - Company details (if applicable)
 - VAT information (if applicable)
- Estimated time: 2-3 minutes

Billing Documents

DAO.AD does not provide automatic invoice generation within the platform.

If you need an invoice for your payment or accounting purposes, please contact your assigned DAO.AD manager or the Support team.

Invoices are prepared manually upon request.

Requesting an Invoice

To request an invoice, provide the following information:

- Account email
- Company name (if applicable)
- Billing address
- VAT number (if applicable)

Providing complete billing information helps us prepare your documents more quickly.

Keeping Your Billing Information Updated

Always keep your billing information up to date.

Update your profile whenever any of the following changes:

- Company name
- Registered address
- VAT registration number
- Legal entity information
- Tax status

Providing accurate billing information helps prevent delays when preparing invoices.

Billing Support

If you have any questions regarding invoices, payments, or billing documents, please contact your DAO.AD manager or Support.

The team will assist you with:

- Invoice requests
- Billing information updates
- Payment confirmations
- Accounting documents

Troubleshooting

Issue: I need an invoice for my payment.

Solution: Contact your DAO.AD manager or Support and provide your payment details. An invoice will be prepared upon request.

Issue: My billing information has changed.

Solution: Update your billing profile and notify your DAO.AD manager before requesting a new invoice.

Currencies, Fees & Exchange Rates

Summary

DAO.AD supports multiple payment providers that may process transactions in different currencies. Depending on the selected payment method, additional fees or currency conversion charges may apply.

Before You Begin

- Role: Advertiser or Webmaster
- Required information:
 - Selected payment method
 - Billing currency
- Estimated time: 2 minutes

Currency conversion

Some payment providers or banks may automatically convert your payment into the required billing currency. Exchange rates are determined by your payment provider or financial institution and may differ from market rates.

Note: DAO.AD does not control or set currency exchange rates.

Payment provider fees

DAO.AD does not charge additional processing fees for deposits or payouts.

However, third-party payment providers may apply their own charges, including:

- Transaction fees
- Banking commissions
- Currency conversion fees
- International transfer fees

These fees depend on your selected payment method and financial institution.

Bank charges

If you make payments via bank transfer, your bank may charge additional service fees. These charges are determined by your bank and are not collected by DAO.AD.

Taxes

Users are responsible for paying any taxes required by their local laws. DAO.AD is not responsible for taxes or financial obligations imposed by local tax authorities.

The total amount received by DAO.AD may differ from the amount sent if your payment provider deducts transaction or conversion fees.

Currency conversion fees are determined solely by the payment provider or your bank.

Troubleshooting

Issue: The deposited amount is lower than expected.

Solution: Check whether your payment provider deducted transaction or currency conversion fees before the payment reached DAO.AD.

Issue: I was charged an unexpected banking fee.

Solution: Contact your bank or payment provider for details regarding transfer or conversion charges.
