301 Permanent Redirect

Summary

This glossary contains definitions of technical and marketing terms referenced across DAO.AD documentation.

Definition

A 301 redirect is a type of HTTP status code that refers to a URL which has been permanently moved to a new destination URL. Upon a server responding to a URL with a 301 redirect, the browser is then redirected to the new destination URL.

Revision #3
Created 5 July 2026 09:33:13 by Waleriidao
Updated 19 July 2026 12:43:40 by Waleriidao