

Schema Markup/Schema.org

Summary

This glossary contains definitions of technical and marketing terms referenced across DAO.AD documentation.

Definition

Schema markup is a form of structured metadata that can be implemented into a website to give search engines more understanding of your website's content. Search engines then use this information to display different types of content on their platforms. For example, you can add Schema to a recipe to show the recipe and cooking steps within search results.

Revision #3

Created 19 July 2026 13:50:37 by Waleriidao

Updated 19 July 2026 19:30:27 by Waleriidao